Entrance Hymn:
Lord of all Hopefulness (386)

Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans [14: 7-9]
The life and death of each one of us has its influence on others.
If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life: it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.
This is the word of the Lord.
R/ Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm:
The Lord is my Shepherd
there is nothing I shall want.

A reading from the Gospel according to John [6: 37-40]
Jesus said to the crowd: All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me, I will not turn them away; because I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of the one who sent me. Now the will of him who sent me is that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, and that I should raise it up on the last day. Yes, it is my Father's will that whoever sees the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and that I shall raise him up on the last day.
This is the Gospel of the Lord.
R/ Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Final Commendation

Saints of God, come to his aid!
Hasten to meet him, angels of the Lord!
R. Receive his soul and present him
to God the Most High.

May Christ, who called you, take you to himself;
May angels lead you to the bosom of Abraham.
R. Receive his soul and present him
to God the Most High.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon him.
R. Receive his soul and present him
to God the Most High.
